About me

Meet Your Coach

I know what it’s like to work hard and still feel unclear.

There was a point in my career where, on the outside, everything looked fine.

But internally, I felt lost, unmotivated, and unsure of what was next.

I had spent over 20 years in advertising and marketing. It was all I knew.

Yet something didn’t feel right anymore.

I wanted to contribute more.

To see the impact of my work directly.

But I didn’t know where to go or how to move forward.

I remember feeling pulled in different directions, questioning my confidence, and wondering if it was too late to change.

That was the moment I realised:

I can’t keep living like this. I need clarity.

I had always felt a sense of entrepreneurship in me, but without guidance or a mentor, I didn’t know how to explore that path.

That experience is why I’m especially passionate about supporting women who feel the same pull, but aren’t sure where or how to begin.

Over time, I found my way back, not by working harder, but by understanding myself more deeply.

That journey shaped how I coach today.

Practical. Human. Strategic.

Always aligned to who you are.

Today, I work with driven professionals, business owners, and leaders who feel exactly how I once felt.

“I’m working hard, but something doesn’t feel right.”

“I feel stuck and don’t know what direction I’m heading.”

“I don’t have time, but it still feels like it’s not enough.”

I created YouLead Coaching to help you find clarity faster, move through uncertainty with support, and build success that feels aligned, not forced.

I believe there is a leader in every one of us.

When you have the right guidance, clarity, and support, you can see what’s possible and go after it with confidence.

You don’t need to do more.You need clarity, direction, and a way forward that feels like you.
